WIND UP OF RACE MEET

Last Chance to Earn Winter's Keep.

LOUPE WILL RE-APPEAR

A Thousand Dollars to Match Maples
--Tommy Cox Does Well in a Try Out.

PERTINENT POINTERS.

First Race—Maples.
Second Race—Failed to fill.
Third Race—Venus.
Fourth Race—Albert M.
Fifth Race—Withdrawn.
Sixth Race—W. W. Woods, in
Violin's absence.
Seventh Race—Evereth.

The local racing season will wind up brilliantly this afternoon with a program of six live events. The bill of fare comprises a mile and a quarter lap bicycle race, half-mile dash, five furlongs dash trotting and pacing, 2:30 class, gentlemen's driving race, and a mile and a quarter dash.

The entries are good and the sport will be of the most exciting description, as in nearly every race winners on Saturday and Monday last have been entered against each other and the keenest kind of rivalry is being displayed.

The bicycle race will be a mile and a quarter affair for a purse of $50, to be divided among the riders, leading at each quarter of a mile. The following have signed an agreement to the above conditions and will surely put in an appearance: John F. Silva, Vincent Silva, Emil Albride, R. A. Dexter and S. W. Thompson.

There was very little activity at the track yesterday and nothing worthy of note was accomplished.

Jim Quinn will handle Fred. Eros today in the 2:30 class event; McManus drove this horse in his last race.

W. W. Woods is a probable starter in the gentlemen's driving race today; he has not been seen on the track for an age, but has been doing useful road work.

Old Loupe, the sensational winner of last year's free-for-all, has arrived at the track and will in all probability be entered in the amateur race this afternoon. Violin may also be seen out again in this same event.

Weller and General Cronje are very lame after Monday's exertions.

J. R. Wilson is willing to match his mare Maples against any horse in the Islands at three-quarters of a mile for $1,000, and many preferred. Col. Cornwell would have taken up the offer with his good mare Garterline if he did not have to unexpectedly depart for the Coast.

W. M. Cunningham will ship Allegro and Antidote to Hilo next week; Aggravation and Fred. Eros may also be included in the consignment. A large delegation of local sports will attend the rainy City meeting.

Tommy Cox, late of Deputy Marshal Chillingworth's staff and who recently left for the Coast in charge of his manager, Henderson Smith, to fight some of the crack featherweights, has made a successful debut in San Francisco. He was tried out with twenty pounds the better of the weights, and notwithstanding poor condition, acquitted himself most creditably. Tim Murphy, the Australian middleweight, saw Cox perform and expressed an opinion that he is quite as good a man as Hegarty, the Australian featherweight champion.

HOW THEY PLAYED.

Speculation Light in Today's Races and Winners Hard to Pick.

Speculation on today's races was exceedingly slim about town last night, there being only two events—the first and seventh on the card—in which anything was doing.

Garterline, Maples and Sir Casimir were all made favorites for the first race, a half-mile dash, and it was a case of even money and take your pick. Garterline opened a strong favorite at evens, Maples was slated at 2½ to 1, and Casimir at 3 to 1. After a while the prices against the latter two horses read 3 to 2 Sir Casimir and 2½ to 1 Maples. Later on Garterline and Maples closed equal favorites with 2 to 1 offered against Sir Casimir.

Aggravation opened the choice for the seventh race, a mile and a quarter dash, at 3 to 2, with Antidote selling at 2 to 1 and Evereth as good as 3 to 1. Antidote was well played to win during the evening and closed favorite at better than even money, with Aggravation second in demand and Evereth the long shot at 3½ to 1, all offers at this figure, however, being eagerly snapped up.

FORM OF THE HORSES.

What the Indications Were at Midnight for the Races.

The first race is a hard one to figure on. Garterline, if she runs generously, will make a great bid for first place; a furlong further would suit her better, though. Sir Casimir is right at home at this distance and if he runs up to the form he has shown in work-outs will win. MAPLES is more or less of an unknown quantity and is very likely to upset calculations.

Maples entered again in the third race, which will immediately follow the first on account of the second race failing to fill. If she starts for the first race she will have her work cut out to beat Venus in the third, who will have the advantage of being fresh and whose previous races should have benefited her considerably.

ALBERT M. will again beat Fred. Eros in the fourth, though the latter may improve somewhat on his running of last Saturday.

If W. W. Woods starts for the gentlemen's driving race he will keep the rest of the field hustling, barring, of course, the unbeatable Violin. EVERETH is bred to go the route in the last race and should beat Aggravation, who may not relish the extra quarter of a mile. Antidote can be relied on to go the distance, but is outclassed as to speed.

A SPRAINED ANKLE QUICKLY CURED.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed.
